

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. I.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1883.

NO. 93.

RABBITS are badly wanted in this market.

It rained 124 days in Kentucky last year.

The BOURBON NEWS was two years old last week.

ONLY four burials in the Danville cemetery last year.

LOST—A good deal of sunshine during the past four weeks.

WORK has commenced on the K. C. depot at Winchester.

THERE are seventeen groceries in Paris, and only one post-office.

The "Jolly Pathfinders" are billed for Maysville Friday night.

LEXINGTON and Fayette county have spent $2,690,000 for railroads.

SATURDAY must have been a fat day, because it was a very slick one.

BEARD'S MINSTRELS on the 27th, and Havlin's Fogg Ferry Co., on Feb. 1.

COURT adjourned Friday evening, after getting in a very solid week's work.

THE Mexican War Veterans will meet in Richmond, Ky., on the 22d of February.

WHEN our tobacco men sell their crops, money will be easier in the bluegrass region.

A CHICAGO firm is buying turkey feathers in Lexington, at forty cents per pound.

"SLUGGERS" have made their appearance in Lexington, and commenced depredations.

In the past year the people of Kentucky wrote 14,581,008 letters, or 8.84 letters per person.

THE Central Kentucky Medical Association will meet in Danville, Ky., Wednesday, January 17th.

JIM WILLIAMS, col'd, was arrested Sunday as a participant in the Bourbon House safe robbery.

Two tramps and a pet bear formed a part of the street attractions at Bowling Green one day last week.

THE Louisville, Evansville and St. Louis Railroad has been purchased by the Chesapeake and Ohio.

THE present cold snap is likely to be of short duration. A warm wave is approaching from the West.

THE Hon. Chas. Offutt is announced in this issue as a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives.

HIRAM BERRY, of Frankfort, sustained painful injuries by a heavy timber falling on his head, at Hermitage distillery.

"It is one of the finest and most attractive entertainments ever given in this city. 'Scraps' is inimitable."—[Louisville Post.

THE Kentucky Union and the Kentucky Central railroads have decided to use the same bed from Paris to Winchester.

DR. FRITTS, of Centerville, has a Brahma rooster that weighs 16½ pounds—said to be the largest chicken in the United States.

O. S. MOORE, a farmer of this precinct, drew the $35 Gold Holiday Prize given on overcoats and clothing, by J. L. Taylor & Co., on the 10th.

MR. HUNTINGTON has issued imperative orders to push tracklaying on the K. C. extension with the utmost speed all along the line.

PETE McCATY, a rock-breaker for John Brannon, was tried Saturday on a writ of lunatica inquirendo, and found to be of unsound mind.

The Kentucky University at Lexington has disposed of "Woodlands," comprising 110 acres, to the Woodland Park Association for $40,000.

A NEW firm has been started up town, having in stock only a barrel of brooms, an empty mackerel kit, two bars of soap and a meal sack of wind.

The few people in Paris who inadvertently failed to subscribe for the News for 1883, should attend to the matter at once and get it off their minds.

MR. STERLING has no public school, although it is a prosperous little city of 2,000 inhabitants, and is very progressive in all other points of business.

An artillery company is being formed among the cadets of the State College at Lexington. They will use a twelve-pounder from the State Arsenal.

SIXTEEN members of a band of regulators have been arrested near West Liberty, Morgan county. Some dark deeds are likely to be developed.

STONER is the chief skating resort now.

LUTHER LEER has rented the Stoker Hotel property at Ruedles Mills, and Mr. Stoker and family will return to Paris.

VENOR says that by February 2d the gloom of winter will be dissipated, although there will be plenty of rough weather after that.

A NEWHOFF, one of our leading dry goods merchants, presented each of his clerks with $25 in token of respect for their faithfulness during the past year.

THE Richmond Herald says: "There is no use 'cussin' the side-walk mud. Praise the Lord and wade on. The remedy lies in next Summer's heat."

THURSDAY night Paducah was shaken by an earthquake that lasted 45 seconds, the people were dreadfully frightened and ran out into the streets in their night garments.

A GREAT cocking main between Louisville and New York birds will be fought in the latter city about the middle of February. The stakes are $1,000 on the main and $100 on the battle.

Judge Matt Turney and G. C. Lockhart will go to Washington City, on Thursday next. It is thought that the Judge is a "dark horse," and that Lockhart is on a "still hunt" for office.

THERE has't been a wild turkey in Bourbon county for over forty years, yet there has been 200 of them shipped from Paris to New York during the past season—they were black tame ones.

ALL bids for the erection of the new court house at Lexington, were rejected the other day, on account of being too high. The plan and specifications will be altered and new bids received.

JOHN THROCKMORTON, who has had a position of watching coal cars for the Paris merchants, left yesterday to take charge of conductor J. W. Throckmorton's farm, as overseer, at Boyd's Station.

DURING a bloody fight in Leach's billiard-room at Frankfort, Colonel Robert P. Pepper was knocked through a window, and O. Shulinski, a cigar maker was beaten over the head with a billiard-cue.

A drummer, giving his opinion of the towns in Kentucky that he had visited, said Richmond had more fine churches and less religion, and fewer bar-rooms and more whisky than any town he knew of.

JAMES CAIN has returned from Marshalltown, Iowa, and will remain until after his brother Bob's marriage, which will take place at Columbus, Ohio, about Feb. 1st, when the bride and groom will probably go to Iowa also.

A MAN from North Missouri has shipped 140 hives of bees to Florida, to spend the winter. It cost him one dollar per hive to ship them, and he calculates on getting seven dollars worth of honey from each hive in the Spring.

Nashville Banner: The present condition of the State Treasury will prevent any of the members drawing their salary for some time to come—and then there is only a little over $6,000 on hand, and that won't pay off for ten day's service.

WANTED—A ferocious black bear to tie out in our back yard, for the special destruction of book agents and other unbearable bores. He must be trained to walk up-right into the office at the tinkling of a bell, and pounce upon his prey without a word of warning.

It was pretty freely remarked on the streets of Paris last week by the solid and worthy element of Bourbon's citizens, that the BOURBON NEWS has done more good to the county toward the strict arraignment of criminals than any motive power heretofore known in the county.

Milly McElroy, a colored woman, in Elizabethtown, has reached the ripe old age of 102 years. She has a daughter living, who is 82 years old. Lindy Field, another colored woman, living in the same place, is 107 years old. The old girls once fought about hauling George Washington on a sled.

POLK FORSYTH, whilst discoursing one of his most infatuating yarns to Neal Harvey, Dan Earlywine, Craddock and others at the Bourbon House Sunday, suddenly dispersed his circle of admiring hearers by the loaded cigar which he was smoking, going off with a terrible flash. Polk was as badly demoralized as the balance of them.

THE "Merry Pathfinders" are billed for our Opera House Saturday night next. Everyone who saw their "Scraps" here last fall, was perfectly infatuated with the troupe and play. They will appear in "Scraps" again, introducing new features all the way through. Smith & Theopold will appear in a wonderful musical sketch, introducing performances on over twenty different instruments.

SOCIETY SCINTILLATIONS.

A Miss is a good ass smile, if not a little gooder.

An Indiana man has been whipping his wife for snoring.

Score Wallace Gruelle one. He says "Gambetta dollar and lost."

A flirt's heart is like an omnibus. It always has room for one more.

L. Frank banqueted his clerks at the Bourbon House Saturday night, in royal style.

Brutus Turner and J. W. Bell, of Richmond, Ky., are spending a few days in our city.

Brain is the impelling force of the world, and thought is the symbol of progress.

"Whoop-up" is the very appropriate name of a border ruffian whisky village in Canada.

Those who commune much with their own hearts will often have occasion to chide them.

A social party and dance was held at the residence of John W. Wilcox, last Friday night.

Mrs. Lillie Langtry, thus far in her American engagement, has netted upward of $80,000.

There were 48 marriage licenses issued to whites in Clark county last year and 67 to colored folks.

Gen. Sanger, editor of the Kev West, Fla., Democrat, is only 20 years old and weighs thirty-five pounds.

A TEXAS man 80 years old has just died from lockjaw caused by a wound received while fooling with a toy pistol.

Men are guided less by conscience than by glory; and yet the shortest way to glory is to be guided by conscience.

The way to net rich in this world is to save what you make. When you make a fool of yourself don't give it away.

The "Oriental Order of Humility" is the name of a new humane society recently organized at Madisonville.

Lots of girls who have ducks to sell, dispose of them at very poor prices on a credit, in the first market they come to.

A Milwaukee woman has kept a kettle of boiling water on the stove for the past twenty-two years in order to scald burglars.

The Bourbon News proposes to shortly issue a Sunday edition. Bruce Champ's piety is of that irrepressible sort that requires a vent.—[Breckinridge News.

One hundred and ten people were married in Christian county in the month of December—38 white and 72 colored.

Dr. Wild, of Toronto, announces that Adam was seven feet tall. We don't believe that the Dr. knows A-dam thing about it.

Dr. Wm. A. McDonald, of Lynn, Mass has sued Rev. Patriick Strain for $10,000 damages, for advising people not to employ him.

Mr. Robt. Sandusky left to-day for Greensburg, Ind. Rumor says he will bring back a life partner with him.—[Lex. Transcript.

A New York girl has made $140,000 by an oil transaction. A can of it blew her rich aunt square into the doors of the New Jerusalem.

Some people are always looking for the bad, and of course, always find it. Then insist on carrying the heavy end of the log all through life.

The absence of legitimate employment has probably made more gamblers than avarice, more drunkards than thirst, and as many suicides as despair.

Have the courage to show your respect for honesty in whatever guise it appears, and your contempt for dishonesty and duplicity, by whomsoever exhibited.

Good humor is the clear blue sky of the soul, on which every star of talent will shine more clearly, and the sun of genius encounters no vapors in its passage.

On the day that a divorce was granted to Mrs. Perkins, a Kansas woman, she was lying dead in the house, and the body of her husband was hanging to the limb of a tree.

Faith makes a Christian, life proves him, trials confirm him, and death crowns him. There are many who want the crown at the beginning rather than at the end of their journey.

It was Dr. Payne, of Richmond, Va., who "struck Billy Patterson," in the year 1852. He had been to a Medical Association, and on coming home at night with several physicians, Billy was drunk and annoying and needed striking.

A new society play has been instituted here, called "possum pie." Two ladies and gents sit near each other and pull the corners of a rumpled handkerchief, the lady and gent holding opposite corners being required to kiss. It has a good deal of kissing mixed up in it.

MILLERSBURG.

FIVE ice is now being gathered here.

Ben Thomason is ill with pneumonia. Millersburgers will form a colony in Florida.

Charlie Clarke is in the tobacco-prizing business.

Several new scholars have been added to the Female College.

The old fashioned credit system is the daily ruin of our dead town. A poor man can't live here, and a rich one is a fool if he does.

John Mock says that when he sold a portion of his lot to the Baptists for the erection of a new church, he obligated Bob McClelland not to sing.

Geo. P. Dudley, who married Miss Annie Wallace, late of this place, has bought a stock of goods and gone into business at Battle Run, Fleming county.

The News invades two-thirds of the happy households in this precinct. If you desire to inform the precinct of any little business notice, you can do so in one day's time, at the cost of about fifty cents.

John B. Vimont and Ed. McArdle left this morning for Jellico Mountain, Tenn. on a hunting expedition. The bears, deer and turkeys will flee into the mountains of Hepseadam, and the "moon-shiners" will smile on the reception of this information.

W. S. Taylor, who has been a citizen of our town for 23 years, and for a long time associated with Jno. T. Hinton in the undertaking business, left this morning for Versailles, where he will go into the undertaking business with Dr. McLeod, formerly of this place.

Dyspepsia, heart-burn, nausea, indigestion, etc., are always relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

THE Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

Cars sell at $10 each in Nevada mining towns.

W. J. Debaun, of Perryville, has 65 Spring lambs already.

Corn land is renting in Clark county at $10 per acre, and grass land at $3.20.

From 6 to 10 cents are the best figures on sales of new tobacco in Fleming county.

The Prince of Wales nominates Iroquois for the Stockbridge Cup next season.

A hog weighing 850 pounds was slaughtered at the Chicago Stock Yards Saturday.

Bowen & Co. have sold to J. G. Gass, Danville, Ky., a three-year-old race horse Baritone.

A bunch of New York cattle weighing 1,600 pounds, sold for $92.30 in Boyle county last week.

Owensboro has twenty-three tobacco factories, and only eight are in operation at present.

The new jockey club of Chicago has raised over three hundred thousand dollars by subscription.

A bunch of 16 cattle weighing 1,500 pounds, was sold in Fayette last week at $5.50 per hundred weight.

A Fayette county man has a Jersey cow two years old, whose milk yields 2½ pounds of butter per day.

Ike Smith, of Lexington, has refused $800, for a suckling colt by Messenger Chief, dam by Allie West.

A Warren county merchant shipped 800 dressed squirrels at one shipment, and 1,300 at another. The county is said to be running over with them.

The Maysville Trotting Association met last week and determined to give $10,000 in stakes of their Spring meeting. The day has not been set for the meeting.

It is said that feeding cattle ought to be fed on one pound of grain for each one hundred pounds of the weight of the steer. For instance, a 1,000 pounds steer would require ten pounds of grain per day.

There were 128 hogsheads and 29 boxes of new tobacco offered in the Cincinnati market last week, and the average price was $8.32, against $9.30 for 130 hogsheads for the same week last year. Almost every hogshead offered last week showed traces of house-burning.

The entries for the fall trots at Lexington in 1883 closed January 1st as follows: Lexington Stakes for two-year olds, 122 nominations. Kentucky Stakes for three-year olds, 136 nominations. Bluegrass Stakes for four-year olds, 141 nominations. New York Stakes for two-year olds, 7 nominations.

Dyspepsia, the bug-bear of epicureans, will be relieved by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Paris Omnibus Line.

Two first-class busses will connect with passenger trains at the Paris depot, fare, 25 cents to the hotels or any part of the city or suburbs. Trunks, 15 cents extra. No charge for valises.

L. F. MANN, Prop'r.

S. B. EWALT,

LIVERY SALE AND COMMISSION STABLE,

High Street, Paris, Kentucky.

Will break colts to best advantage. Horses bought and sold on a small margin, also boarded on as good terms as any other stable in Paris.

B. F. WALTER,

SURGEON - DENTIST,

MILLERSBURG, KY.

A set of TEETH for $10. Gold filling for $1. All work guaranteed.

J. E. KEEFE,

BAKER AND CONFECTIONER,

Choice Brands of Cigars and Tobacco French and American Candies.

WEBER'S Cincinnati Lager Beer on Draught.

Main Street, Paris, Kentucky.

G. W. CAIN,

HORSE AND COW DOCTOR,

NEAR CHANEY'S DISTILLERY, NICHOLAS CO.

Will attend all cases of disease or accidents in animals, and make charges conditional upon success. No cure no pay.

KIMBROUGH HOUSE,

CARLISLE, KY.

KIMBROUGH & HUFF, Prop'rs.

Large and Commodious Sample Rooms on first floor for commercial men. Baggage transferred to and from the depot free of charge.

JAMES McARDLE,

MERCHANT TAILOR,

Grand Opera Build'g,

CINCINNATI, O.

GEO. W. DAVIS,

DEALER IN—

FURNITURE,

Window Shades, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattresses, &c.,

Special Attention Given to Undertaking and Repairing.

Main Street, Paris, Ky.

PHARES T. THROOP,

Att'y-At-Law,

CARLISLE, - - KY.

Office over B. F. Adair's grocery.

nov15y

A. LAUBLY,

SADDLER,

CARLISLE, - - - - - KY.

Calls particular attention of the farmers and horsemen, to the fact that he is now prepared to put up,

FINE HARNESS AND SADDLES a specialty. Will sell at lower figures than heretofore for CASH. Special attention paid to repairs.

I keep constantly on hand a large stock of whips, collars, trace-chains, and everything pertaining to the trade.

W. H. H. JOHNSON, Prop'r.

D. D. CONWAY, W. B. CONWAY, Clerks.

JOHNSON HOUSE,

MILLERSBURG, KY.

One square from railroad depot. GOOD LIVERY STABLE ATTACHED. The kindest attention given and guests made comfortable.

Good Sample Rooms. A table filled with all the delicacies of the season.

RATES REASONABLE.

T. H. GLENN,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Carlisle, Ky.

Will practice in the courts of Nicholas and adjoining counties. Special and prompt attention given to collections.

MRS. JANE PURNELL, Jno. R. PURNELL, Proprietress, Clerk.

PURNELL HOUSE,

MAIN STREET,

Table and rooms second to no country hotel in the State.

Large and well furnished Sample Rooms for Commercial Travelers.

Good Livery Stable attached. Refer to all who have patronized the house.

Terms Reasonable.

"BLUE GRASS ROUTE."

KY. CENTRAL R. R.

Shortest and Quickest

ROUTE TO—

MISSOURI,

KANSAS

AND TEXAS.

Tickets to all points

NORTH, EAST AND WEST.

BAGGAGE CHECKED

THROUGH.

Special Rates to EMIGRANTS.

For further particulars, apply to

FRANK CARR, Paris, Ky.

C. L. BROWN, GEN'L PASSENGER AGT.,

Covington, Ky.

Time Table in Effect since Oct. 15, '82.

Lv' Covington 8 a.m., 2:30 p.m., and 8 p.m.

Ar' at Paris 11:30 a.m., 5:45 p.m., 10:40 p.m.

Lex'ton 12:15 p.m., 6:35 p.m., 11:20 p.m.

Lv' Lexington at 7:45 a.m., 2:10 p.m., 3:15 p.m.

Ar' at Paris at 8:35 a.m., 2:20 p.m., 3:40 p.m.

Lv' Maysville at 6 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Ar' at Paris at 8:25 a.m. and 3:55 p.m.

Lex'ton at 9:25 a.m.

Lv' Lexington at 5 p.m.

Paris at 5:55 p.m. and 6:20 a.m.

Ar' at Maysville 8:10 p.m. and 8:45 a.m.

LAMAR HOUSE,

(GREEN CHEATHAM, Prop'r.)

CARLISLE, KY.

One Square from Railroad Depot—All

Baggage transferred to and fro, free of charge!

LIVERY STABLE ATTACHED

nov14y

HENRY DAUM,

Fashionable Barber,

Opp. Post-Office.....Paris, Ky

W. T. OVERBY.

WHOLESALE LUMBER DEALER—

White and Yellow Pine, Poplar and Oak Timber for Tobacco Barns a Specialty.

T. V. HALL,